Night Hotel Times Square

157 West 47th Street

Night Hotel Times Square begins with a big opening number. The lobby's epic tropical fish tank, octopi-inspired chandeliers are an immediate delight. The plot thickens in Maple, a mountain-lodge-meets-gonzo-lounge straight out of Hunter S. Thompson, where you can even sip his favorite drink. At the edge of Times Square, steps from the uber pedestrian-friendly stretch of Broadway between 42nd and 47th, the less touristy, authentic, not-yet-Yelped-to-death restaurants of Hell's Kitchen and just about every major subway line in the city. But underneath all these special effects are a warm story with heart: Yours. We dress the stage for an "anything is possible" NYC experience at the hotel and beyond. What happens next is entirely up to you (with our Concierge playing a supporting role, of course). Just remember: the most compelling stories happen at Night.

Paramount Hotel

---

New York is the city that never sleeps, but surely, you'll want to catch a few winks between activities. The NYC hotel rooms and suites at Paramount Hotel are comfortable, neat, and updated in a contemporary style. Guests rave about our sumptuous pillow-top mattresses, down comforters and pillows, and Egyptian cotton sheets. (Hypoallergenic bedding is available on request.) Modern luxuries surround you, including a high-definition flat-screen TV, iPod docking station, and high-speed Internet access (surcharge may apply). You'll be sure to sleep soundly, as our New York hotel is amazingly quiet despite being so close to all the action. And before you head out in the morning, the weather status display on your floor will tell you if it's an umbrella, gloves, or flip-flops kind of day before you even step outside. Some of the best Midtown West restaurants can be found just steps from your room at Paramount Hotel. Grab a cup of Italian-style coffee at Corso, or enjoy traditional American cuisine at Paramount Bar & Grill, our restaurant in New York City's Theater District.

YOTEL New York

570 10th Avenue

---

YOTEL was created by YO! Founder Simon Woodroffe OBE and Gerard Greene. Inspired by first class travel, they translated the language of luxury airline travel into a small but luxurious cabin." YOTEL's 'cabins' are uncompromisingly designed around guests, taking the essential elements of luxury hotels in smaller, smart spaces. Standard features include luxury bedding, rejuvenating monsoon rain showers, relaxing mood lighting and YOTEL's signature 'techno wall' with flat screen TVs, multi power points and easy connectivity. Conceived for busy international travelers. Typically located in easily accessible, fast upcoming urban centers, YOTEL hotels deliver more luxury with larger cabins as well as a sense of community with spaces for work, exercise and social gatherings. Guests can enjoy free Wi-Fi throughout the hotel and complimentary hot drinks.
